Dear Jim, If carbon is blacker, I'll send it. Ribbon needs replacing. As the enclosed memo on last night' SS visit shows, we did have this interruption, followed by a long conversation with Lesar on Ray discovery motions, to instead of pushing more on writing cleaned up some of clipping accumulation. Your "Conclusive Evidence in Hunt Payoff," SF Chron, 5/27/74, is an important bit and I had not seen it or heard it. Thanks.

Thanks also with Stein. He had a separate office in Berkeley, not with the station.

I don't know how they'll react but I felt the offer was called for and I do think that a vigorous defense that takes the form of an attack is perhaps the only way their man can stay out of the slam and a means by which this creeping assault on the press can be deterred. I think also that it must be because it can close one of the few ways that there is a chance of exposing errant officialdom. It was tired in WG.

Years ago I used to enjoy Bob and Ray, who were aired jyst before a newscast I used to try to catch as I drove home from making farm deliveries. Walking in a sitting down position has an aptness applied to our GL's thinking and positions. And expression.

To me the most interesting part of the "fleebus" is that it can be real and hence so timely. (And did provide such an opportunity for the display of his sui generis GL-type personal courage, all medically authenticated. Noble, selfless, brave, self-sacrificing. Great man.

Best, HW 7/17/74
